New Business

Town Manager updates councillors on the meeting with Municipal analysts. All office operations are on schedule and Municipal Affairs are happy with the work that is being done here in Lawn.

Councillor Lambert updates council on the Joint councils meeting she attended. Joint Council group is looking into ideas such as joint insurances to allow everyone to work together to get a better plan.

Councillor Slaney discussed the idea of moving the emergency exit door in the hall and the cost if this was to happen. Replacing the door in the current location is the cheaper option.

Councillor Joe Strang asked if the leak down the harbour is on the list for the spring. It will be done once the weather warms up and approval is granted from the highways department.

Councillor Jackie Strang inquired if getting shale for the Strangside road is possible. Price quotes on material will be gathered for next meeting.

Mayor Kearney asked if the maintenance department could measure up the land for the new maintenance shop.

Public Works Department

The chair of the public works committee will meet with the head of the maintenance department to discuss possible areas that needs trees cut for safety issues. A list will be compiled and home owners will be contacted. An emergency plan meeting is scheduled for when the chair of the committee returns.
